“ Terry always treated us as family. Probably why we always refer to him as “dad”. Could never leave the Mace house until Terry was updated with our lives. He never missed delivering a box of chocolate during the holidays and insisted that a kiss from Marian was enough in return. He was sly that way. Ok with me because he always offered to kiss me too. Miss ya dad.

“ We shared wonderful trip with Terry and Carol our trips to Mexico we had a blast. The hardest we've ever seen Terry laugh was one night at the Steak house in Las Vegas Mike was trying to tell a joke about a German U Boat and screwed it up, Terry laughed so hard he had to take his glasses off to wipe the tears away. We went on a road trip up to Settle, everything we stopped to get a room Terry would come over and tell us his room was bigger or better than what we had. It was a game the guys played. So so many fantastic memories. Thanks for all the fun we had together. We love you big guy

“ Terry has always been larger than life!! When we were little freshman girls in high school, he was a huge cop in a uniform and he delighted in using his commanding voice and then that little corner of his mouth would turn up and there was the Teddy Bear. He has always been so much fun and I always looked forward to seeing him!! Rest In Peace Terry you have left a strong LEO Legacy!!! My deepest condolences to all his loved ones, you were so lucky to have him!!

“ My dad was such a clown , whenever we would go anywhere if someone was eating ice cream he would joke to them and ask for a bite, they would look at him with confusion then more times then not offer him a bite, he would get a kick out of it every time.
My dad was a wonderful man and if you knew him you would know he was always right :lol: or think he was always right, he was very knowledgeable.
Thank you daddy for always being there for me. You will always be the first man I ever loved, the first hand I ever held ,and my one and only daddy. Thank you for paving the way for me in life and teaching me that honesty is the best policy, you taught me to be humble and kind. I didn't always say it but I know you knew it that I loved you tons.I was lucky to have you as my dad AKA Archie Bunker. I love you dad and miss you already.
love you,
Charlie
