In Loving Memory of Alexander De La Paz Perez

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Alexander De La Paz Perez, who left us on August 17, 2025. A proud Puerto Rican man, Alexander was a beloved husband, devoted father, and cherished friend to many.

His family was the center of his world. He poured his heart into creating a life filled with love, laughter, and lasting memories. Known for his sense of humor and his love for a good beer, Alexander brought joy into every room he entered. His presence was magnetic, and his spirit unforgettable.

Alexander is survived by his loving wife, Raquel De La Paz, and their three children: Yanira, Rebecca, and Alexander Jr. He was a dedicated and loving father who gave each of his children unconditional love and endless support. He worked tirelessly to make sure they had the best in life. No matter how hard things got, he never hesitated to put their needs first.

He had a strong and sometimes tough personality, and there were times when we knew we had to walk on tiptoes just to stay off his radar. But even in those moments, there was never a doubt about his love. Behind that strength was a heart full of deep care and fierce loyalty. Even on his worst days, he looked for his kids. Whether they were near or far, they were always on his mind. To his children, he was their rock, their guide, and truly their everything.

Although his passing leaves an unimaginable void, his spirit lives on in the hearts of his wife, children, and everyone who knew and loved him. We will remember him not only for the life he lived, but for the love he gave so freely.

He will be deeply missed and forever loved.
