

Edward Scott Smith

September 20, 1982 - December 10, 2025

Edward Scott “Scotty” Smith, age 43, of Apple Valley, California, was born on September 20, 1982, and passed away on December 10, 2025, surrounded by love.

Scotty spent his life in Apple Valley and was known for his big laugh, warm heart, and natural ability to make those around him feel at ease. He loved having a good time and found joy in the simple things especially golfing, fishing, and spending time outdoors. One of his favorite places was Lake Tahoe, where he and his wife, Laura, were married, a place that held deep meaning and beautiful memories for him.

Above all else, Scotty was a devoted husband and father. He is survived by his loving wife, Laura, and their son, Grayson, who was the light of his life. He is also survived by his mother, Joann, and stepfather, Jeff; his father, Ed, and stepmother, Tina; his brothers, Brandon and his wife Lauren, and Justin; his sisters, Stephanie and her wife Lacy, and Christina and her husband Frank; and ten cherished nieces and nephews.

Scotty will be remembered for his humor, hardworking nature, and the love he gave so freely to his family and friends. His laugh, kindness, and presence will be deeply missed and forever carried in the hearts of those who loved him.

A celebration of life will be held at Apple Valley Golf Course, 15200 Rancherias Road, on January 11, 2026, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Everyone who knew and loved Scotty is welcome to join in honoring and celebrating his life.
