“ I took awhile to write about a memory about Jeff, because there are so many that flood my mind when I think about you, Jeff. I loved you like a brother, and we spent many hours of talking about so many subjects, from how far away did we think one particular bright star on a clear night might be, to how old we thought a particular rock we had found along a creek bed might be. To who a better guitar player was between Joe Satriani or Eddie Van Halen, to who was a better President, Abe Lincoln, or JFK. We never failed to have great conversation topics, or the fun in trying to come up with new topics. We also had some hard times with each other, as anyone does, but I will always continue to focus on the find memories of the moments in time that we had together. R. I.P. Until we meet again my sweet cousin ~ Obed

“ I have so many memories I don't even know where to start. I remember you used to make this funny noise and I would laugh. I remember when you were staying with me and when you would hug me. You would be outside and I would ask you, "What are you doing Dad?" You told me, "Talking to God." I can't wait to see you in heaven Daddy.

“ I have many memories with Jeff. From childhood through adulthood. From California, Springfield, Amarillo, and Walsh. Holidays and sadness. Jeff helping us move into our home in Walsh. He used to be so strong and always so talented in fixing things- when he wanted to. He will be missed. I send my love to the family. Sharon Dubois
