“ I was heart broken to hear of his passing. He was a great man. We dated as teenagers when he lived in Big Bear. We re-connected after both of our spouses passed away 45 years later. He was one of the kindest men I've ever known. We got each other through some very lonely times by talking on the phone almost every night. I loved him. He will be missed.

“ Lee's Memory of Monte

Even at 19 years old, Monte was a compassionate person. I remember when I was in a motorcycle accident with my brother Alvin. We were going through an intersection when we ran into the back of a pick-up truck bumper. My brother Monte was at the gas station at the intersection. When he saw the accident and realized it was us, Monte saw me pushing the motorcycle when he noticed that I was limping. Monte pulled my pants leg up and saw my kneecap was mangled. Monte didn't think twice about himself he picked me up and carried me 2 blocks to the doctor. The doctor told him he couldn't fix my knee and that he would need to take me to the hospital. There wasn't a hospital in our town, so Monte carried me back to his car and drove 60 miles down the mountain to a big town with a hospital. That was an impressionable memory to me to this day.
